The resultant total information in the text box will appear in your entry in the LIST.

-	David Friedland is both a litigator and an experienced mediator, specializing in intellectual property disputes. He feels strongly that being an active litigator helps him stay sharp and prepared for his role as mediator. His extensive experience as a mediator has taught him the value of listening well to both sides, in order to find common goals which can lead to a successful outcome. A recognized leader in the field, David is current chair of the Online Dispute Resolution Subcommittee within INTA's ADR Committee and is on the Association's Panel of Trademark Mediators. He often asked to contribute to legal panels highlighting the benefits of mediation to brand owners, including speaking on mediation panels at both the 2017 and 2018 INTA Annual Meetings.
